I wanted him to go, so I could go, so I could stop feeling hurt. I shouldn't have opened my heart to someone like him. It was stupid, it was so stupid. It was all too much, too much. I said nothing. I just watched him get dressed, get into his car and drive away. I knew it was the wrong thing to do. I knew it would only make things worse, but I couldn't stop myself. I felt empty, like I'd been emptied out. I wanted to say something. I wanted to tell him what I thought. I wanted to ask him what it was he wanted. But I said nothing. I just couldn't stop the tears. I couldn't stop him. I was so stupid. I was so stupid. I was so stupid. That was why I couldn't leave. That was why I was there. And every time he'd been there before. Every time he'd been there before. I tried to tell myself it would be better. I 3e33713323
