This interpretation of this verse, from the Book of Ezekiel, is well known and frequently recited in prayers for Safed. The rabbis of Safed, led by the kabbalist Abraham Abulafia, maintain that many of the prayers that are commonly recited in Safed's Mikvehs (synagogues), such as the "Kol Nidre," are subject to the revelation in this verse; they believe this "great catastrophe" may even occur. The recitation of the verse in Sefardic tradition is based on the opinion of Nachmonides that verses in Ezekiel are revealed in the same manner that the Book of Job is revealed. Indeed, in the verse, the prophet Ezekiel (in 71:19-20) stresses that God is not limited to particular eras, but has always existed, and will always exist, and He does not regard time. In Safed's tradition, this revelation of this verse is cited in the re-enactment of the "Kol Nidre." In Safed, it takes place at the end of the morning prayers, and lasts for a period of several minutes. First, the congregation, dressed in holiday clothing, forms a circle around the Mikvah. The circle of Mikvah-attendants increases in size so that the circle encompasses the outside walls of the Mikveh. The kabbalists of Safed believe that the verse in Ezekiel, "And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the house
