Mahoning County tenants injured in house fire The Mahoning County building inspector is investigating a house fire that has injured two people inside. The fire at a Warren Street home was reported shortly after 7 a.m. Those injured were two people who lived at the home and a friend. The house is in the area of South Chase Street and South Fifth Street. An ambulance was seen at the scene. There was heavy smoke and fire coming from the basement and first floor and the roof collapsed. The cause of the fire is unknown.Ok guys, so I'm definitely just an old soul. It's more about when I was a teen. Like when I was 14, I could just sit down and play Chess Grandmaster and study for hours. It's the same for playing the drums. I could sit down and play for 2-3 hours and never even have to stop. And then I went to college and started dealing with other people. My attitude changed. Like now I'm kind of more a group type and I'd love to be able to sit down and play to a movie or something. But hey, I still love music. Some of the most amazing moments in my life have been playing guitar and drumming. I'm at a point where I like being in the studio a lot, but I just can't stay there 24/7. I need to get out and do fun stuff too! So for me it's just about picking up where I left off. I still enjoy playing music, and being in the studio and doing my thing. I am a producer working in the recording studio. My whole life has been spent recording and making music. Music has been a big part of my life and to be honest I can't believe that I am now finally in the position where I can support myself doing what I love. I was always the weird kid in my family, so I never really knew what it was like to go to clubs etc. but with the generation I'm in now and my friends, it just happens. We're never sure when it's going to happen, we just know when its going to. And then like any natural progression, we all want to do it more, so now we're searching for any and all opportunities to get into studio work. My musical experience has not been confined to the music I've been making. I've just played with pretty much anyone
