The global maternal mortality ratio has fallen from 1990 to 2006 from 385 to 215 per 100 000 live births. However, perinatal and stillbirth mortality rates are relatively stable at 14% and 12% respectively. These trends have been achieved despite improving access to emergency obstetric care. Mortality from pregnancies complicated by malaria, HIV, syphilis, anemia and hemorrhage is not decreasing. There is an increase in twinning due to increasing use of ovulation induction agents in the ovulatory population. Policies

A: type.GetType() looks for classes, interfaces, and enums. type.Assembly looks for classes, enums, structs, interfaces, enums, and delegates. A: type.GetType will get you the type from any assembly, without caring whether it is a class, an interface, an enum, a struct, or anything else. type.Assembly will get you types contained in the current assembly. Any class, struct or enum that is defined in the current assembly is accessible through the Assembly class. But not interface, or delegate types. A: The difference is that type.GetType() will get all class types in all assemblies, while type.Assembly only gets classes contained in the current assembly. The attack on the World War I Memorial The attack on the World War I Memorial The Patriot Guard Riders today stood for all our veterans, both living and dead. The call was issued from the main stage of the annual Loudon Memorial Day parade, the largest in the area, as the Raging Grannies led the march through the historic town of Loudon, New Hampshire. The Patriot Guard Riders stand for all our veterans, both living and dead. We stand with them, and we stand proudly. The most special reason that the Patriot Guard Riders stand for our veterans is that one of our own has fallen. Our 35 year old friend Eric Bailey died Friday while on an errand for the RGRW. Eric had participated since 2005 with fellow veteran motorcyclists of the Loudon Chapter of the Patriot Guard Riders, and knew the RGRW members personally. He will be greatly missed by a whole host of people. Eric had made certain to travel from his home in Connecticut to New Hampshire this year to see us ride and in a very similar manner, to serve, as others in the military 6d1f23a050
