We already knew that The Man was going to lose his Transformers toy collection, given the way his wife charged back into the room. This is much sadder, though. Pro-government thugs shot and killed a 50-year-old woman outside her home in Marbella . The local police chief said the woman was "assassinated" and "a bullet has entered her head, the brain and the other organs. Her condition is catastrophic." A man was also injured. It is not yet known whether this was a planned attack by alleged anarchist terrorist groups, or if it was just a random attack. Eric Adams, a black man who was born and raised in Trenton in an impoverished neighborhood on the same street where the Dibbs family lived said he was stopped by a five-man crew of gang members and that two of the thugs swung at him first. Adams said he punched one of the men, who then began jumping on him.
